

From: Jeffrey Eckman
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/18/02 4:23pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

If Microsoft is allowed to have as part of a settlement a donation of hardware and Microsoft software to schools, it will further Microsoft's monopoly.

If this lawsuit were against big tobacco, it would be like allowing a tobacco firm to settle by giving free cigarettes to 580,000 students.

I'm not sure if I'm sending this to the right place... but I'm giving it a shot!

-Jeffrey Eckman

Jeffrey Eckman
Systems Administrator
McDougal Littell, a Houghton Mifflin Company
222 Berkeley Street
Boston, MA 02116
jeffrey_eckman@hmco.com
phone: 617-351-3035
fax: 617-351-1213
toll free pager: 1-877-428-1240, use option 3
email to pager: jeckman@skytel.com

CC: jeckman@mac.com@inetgw